Software Developer

Hi, I'm Daniel Dias, a Software Developer from Porto, Portugal, with a diploma of merit for the Best Student of Software Engineering Master's degree. I have a huge passion for software development, either in Web, Mobile or Desktop development. I'm always processing, examining things and thinking of new ways to solve the problems ahead.

I'm currently looking for a challenging environment that would lead me to make a positive impact in the community and learn new things along the way.
